

Tuesday Rites Announced for L. Educator

Funeral services for Mrs. Bertha F. Forrester, 59, principal of Bonneville Elementary school, will be held Tuesday at 4 p.m.

The Rev. Alvin L. Morris, pastor of the First Presbyterian church will officiate at 574 E. 1st South.

Mrs. Forrester, a prominent educator in the Salt Lake City school system for 37 years, died Saturday evening at her residence, 3344 S. Oakwood St., of heart ailment.

She had been principal at Bonneville since the school opened about three years ago. Salt Lake Native

A native of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Forrester was born July 28, 1893, a daughter of Martin and Augusta Robson Fassell.

She was graduated from the University of Utah Normal school in 1913 and earned a B.A. degree there in 1938.

Mrs. Forrester was a member of the Salt Lake chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, a national honorary society for women educators and of the Salt Lake Principals Assn., Utah Education Assn., and the National Education Assn.

She had taught in the city's elementary schools for many years before taking over as principal at Franklin School in 1938, a position she held for eight years.

Lafayette Principal

She also served as principal at Lafayette School for two years before going to Franklin.

Surviving are one son, George Wallace Forrester; one brother, Wayne M. Fassell; two nephews and a niece, W. Martin, Gerald N., and Phyllis L. Fassell, all of Salt Lake City.

Friends may call at the place of services Monday from 7 to 8 p.m. Burial will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

OBITUARIES

Eva Allanna N. Porter

Mrs. Eva Allanna Nichols Porter, 71, of 1174 Westminister Ave., died Sunday at 8 p.m. at her home of a heart ailment.

She was born Jan. 23, 1879, in Brigham City, daughter of Alvin W. and Eva Jones Nichols, early Brigham City residents. She was married to Aaron B. Porter on Oct. 8, 1900, in the Salt Lake Temple, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The couple were pioneer residents of Heber, Ida., and lived there until coming to Salt Lake City in 1904. She was an active member of the Sugar House Ward at the time of her death.

Survivors include her husband and her mother of Salt Lake City; four sons and two daughters, A. O. Porter, Mrs. E. J. Burton and the Rev. Valery P. Burton and the Rev. Salt Lake City; S. O. Porter, Ida., and Farr J. Porter, Salt Lake City.

Also surviving are 13 grand and the following brothers: Conrad M. Nichols and Mrs. Helen, Rexburg, Idaho; Leland and Mrs. M. H. Brian and N. Smith, Ogden.

Funeral services will be announced from 3128 S. State.

Mrs. Porter

Delvin Franklin Lincoln

TWIN FALLS, IDA.—Funeral services were to be conducted Monday at 1 p.m. for Delvin Franklin Lincoln, 41, who died Friday of injuries suffered June 12 when he was killed between a post and the drawbar of a tractor.

The tractor was started accidentally and backed up and struck him. He died in Magic Valley Hospital.

Minister Duane Perkins was to officiate at the services in Murtough Ward Chapel, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Burial was to be in Sunset Memorial Park.

Mr. Lincoln was born Nov. 7, 1911, in Filer, a son of the late Ivan G. Lincoln, a former resident of Wendover, Colo., and Zephina Lincoln. He married Loretta Powell, July 7, 1932, in Murtough. He was a farmer and sheepman and a member of the Church and Twin Falls Elks Lodge.

Surviving are his widow, his mother, Mrs. Zephina L. Kirkman, Twin Falls; two sons and two daughters, Stewart and Keith Lincoln, Mrs. Jerry Haynes and Karen Lincoln, all of Murtough; three brothers and a sister, Floyd Lincoln, Twin Falls; Dale Lincoln, Kuny, Idaho; Leslie Lincoln, Shallowater, Tex.; and Mrs. Calvin Fackell, Oakland, Cal.

Mr. Lincoln

Price Funeral Is Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Isabella Ronald Price, 73, of 1110-4th Ave., active church worker and wife of Arthur Price, an architect for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, will be conducted Wednesday at 12:15 p.m.

Bishop Zeniff D. Harrison will officiate at rites Mrs. Price to be held in East Twenty-seventh Ward chapel, 185 P. St.

Mrs. Price died Thursday evening at her home of natural causes. She was a native of England.

Friends may call at 200 E. South Temple Tuesday from 7 to 8 p.m.

Funeral services for Mrs. Isabella Ronald Price, 73, of 1110-4th Ave., active church worker and wife of Arthur Price, an architect for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, will be conducted Wednesday at 12:15 p.m.

Bishop Zeniff D. Harrison will officiate at rites Mrs. Price to be held in East Twenty-seventh Ward chapel, 185 P. St.

Anna M. Gultard

Mrs. Anna McLaughlin Gultard, 82, 28 S. State, died Sunday at 10:55 a.m. in her residence after an illness.

She was born Oct. 7, 1870, in Glasgow, Scotland, a daughter of Patrick and Mary Tommie McLaughlin. She was married to Alphonse Gultard in Chicago, Oct. 27, 1902.

The couple moved to Utah in 1903 and resided in Salt Lake City for many years. They later moved to Riverfront where Mr. Gultard died in 1928. Since then Mrs. Gultard had lived with a daughter, Mrs. Ashby S. Thatcher, 28 S. State.

She was a member of the Catholic Church and was a charter member of the Catholic Women's League. She also was a member of the Pioneer Club of Women's Benefit Association.

She is survived by her daughter; two brothers, Joseph McLaughlin, Flint, Mich., and Thomas McLaughlin, Deep Water, N. J.; and a sister, Mrs. A. C. Slater.

Mrs. Gultard

Thomas A. Prescott, obituary

Deseret News, June 22, 1953: B-7

Sylvester Rollo

Sylvester Rollo, died at his residence, 844 Lorraine Blvd. Sunday at 1:45 a.m. of a heart ailment.

He was born in Giddeon, Italy, Nov. 23, 1873, a son of Anthony and Catherine Rollo, and came to Utah in 1919. In 1922 he became owner of the White Star and Food Co., which he operated until his retirement in 1942.

Mr. Rollo was a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Parish. He married Hannah Dillon Rollo in 1898 at Albany, N. Y. She died March 31, 1948.

He later married Winifred Smith, who survives him. He also is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Requiem high mass will be celebrated Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the St. Vincent de Paul Church by the Rev. Martin E. Ruff. Holy rosary will be said Tuesday at 8 p.m. at 4760 N. State. Friends may call at that address Tuesday from 8 p.m. until time of the rosary and Wednesday prior to the services. Burial will be in Mt. Calvary Cemetery.

Mr. Rollo

Jack Franco

Funeral services for Jack Franco, 33, of 928 Grace St., will be Tuesday at 10 a.m. at 36 E. 7th South by Bishop Carl E. Nash of Liberty Ward, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Mr. Franco was found dead in his home Friday. Death was apparently due to natural causes.

Friends may call at the place of services Monday from 8 to 9 p.m. and Tuesday prior to the funeral hour. Burial will be in Salt Lake City Cemetery.

Levi Sylvester Brome

CEDAR CITY—Levi Sylvester Brome, 78, Missouri, Mont., retired railway mail clerk, died in a local hospital Saturday afternoon of a heart attack.

He had been on route through the area and was at a local motel Friday night when he suffered the attack.

Childs of New York state, he was born Sept. 5, 1873. His wife and a daughter were with him when he was stricken.

Funeral services and burial will be in Montana and will be conducted by Jensen Mortuary, Cedar City.

Max Brisk

BINGHAM—Funeral services for Max Brisk, 87, 367 Main St., Bingham, will be Sunday at 3 p.m. at the Community Church in Bingham.

Mr. Brisk died Nov. 13, 1947, and A. M. will conduct the rites. Friends may call at Bingham Mortuary Monday from 7 to 8 p.m.

The family requests that no flowers be sent. Those wishing to do so may contribute to the Intermountain Striking Children's Hospital.

Mr. Brisk was a member of Canyon Lodge No. 11, F. and A. M., and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. Burial will be in Salt Lake City Cemetery.

Sorina Anderson Olsen

EPHRAIM—Funeral services for Mrs. Sorina Anderson Olsen, 69, native of Denmark, will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. in Ephraim South Ward Chapel, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Mrs. Olsen died Sunday at 3 a.m. in St. Pleasant hospital of natural causes.

Born Aug. 30, 1883, in Denmark, she was brought to the United States by Church missionaries when she was 8 years old. Two years later her parents came to America and the family moved to Ephraim.

In 1901, she was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, the Rev. Carl Olsen, who was married to Earl Olsen. The marriage was solemnized in the Mantel Temple in 1924. Mrs. Olsen had been a visiting teacher in the Relief Society for many years and had been one of the visiting teachers in her ward for six years. She had also been a member of the Singing Mothers for many years.

Leonard H. Wallace

PRICE—Funeral services for Leonard H. Wallace, 22, a member of Price City police department, were to be conducted Monday at 2 p.m. in Price City Fourth Ward chapel, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Bishop L. Morris Snow was to officiate.

Mr. Wallace died Friday night in a Price hospital following a short illness. He was a native of St. Louis, Mo., and had been in Price City for many years. He was the husband of Mrs. Norma Jorgensen Wallace.

Burial was to be in Price City Cemetery, directed by Wallace Mortuary.

Ronald E. J. Phillips

MORGAN—Funeral services for Ronald E. J. Phillips, 15, who drowned June 15 in East Canyon Creek, will be conducted Tuesday at 1 p.m. in Morgan Ward Chapel, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, by Elmer Porter, bishop.

Burial will be in South Morgan Cemetery directed by Lindquist and Mortuary, Ogden.

He had lived in Porterville, all his life where he had attended school. He was a descendant in the Porterville L. D. S. Ward, and was an active Boy Scout at the time of his death.

Survivors are his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Phillips, and the following brothers and sisters: Mr. and Mrs. William J. Phillips, George B. Janet Kaye, Charlotte Ann and Marvin Lynn Phillips; granddaughters, Mrs. and Mrs. Marvin Phillips, Porterville; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Comm, Ogden; and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jackson, Newark, Cal., a great-grandmother, Mrs. Annie Hood, Alton, Wyo.

William Harvey Calvert

BEAVER—Funeral services for William Harvey Calvert, 72, will be held in the Greenville Ward Chapel, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, at 2 p.m. with Bishop James P. Williams conducting.

Mr. Calvert died in a Millard hospital Saturday. He had been ill for several weeks.

He was born in Omaha, Neb. Feb. 22, 1879, a son of William Reed and Calvert Calvert. He came with his parents to Greenville, where he had resided most of his life. He married Laura Jane Arthur in Greenville in 1900.

He was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He had been a farmer and railroad workman.

Survivors include one son, Ron Calvert, Greenville; four daughters, Mrs. Nettie Foster, Greenville; Mrs. Laura Pace, Millard; Mrs. Dorothy Davis, California; Mrs. Louise Fackell, Greenville; 23 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren and half brother, Orion Calvert, Greenville; and a sister, Mrs. Margaret Blackmer, Greenville.

Friends may call at the Ron Calvert home in Greenville Tuesday from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Burial will be in the Greenville Ward Chapel, under the direction of the Southern Utah Mortuary.

Annie M. Sullivan

HURRICANE—Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 4 p.m. for Mrs. Annie M. Sullivan, 72, who died Sunday in Cedar City.

Bishop C. Carroll Hoston will officiate in Hurricane South Ward chapel, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Friends may call at Spillbury Funeral Home, St. George, Tuesday from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., and at the family home in Hurricane Wednesday from 1 p.m. to time of the services.

Mrs. Sullivan was born Dec. 6, 1880, in Leeds, Washington County, a daughter of E. C. and Mary Jane Schiappi Olson. She worked for a time in the Leeds Post Office.

On April 24, 1908, she was married to William D. Sullivan. The couple had lived in Hurricane when she was a telephone operator for many years. Mrs. Sullivan has been active in civic and church affairs in the community and had served as president of the Mutual Improvement Association and was active in the Relief Society and Sunday School work.

Surviving are her husband and the following sons and daughters: Cecil Sullivan, Hurricane; E. C. Hoston and Mary Jane Sullivan, Hurricane; and Maurine S. Wilson, LaVerde; O. Lene and C. Carlie Sullivan, Whittier, Cal.; Mrs. Annie M. Sullivan, Victor, Idaho; Mrs. Gay A. McFarlane, Casper, Wyo.

Also surviving are 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild; a son-in-law, two sisters, Mrs. Mamie Colburn and Mrs. Hazel Moody, St. George.

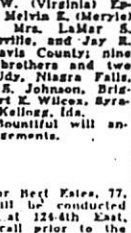

Ronald Phillips

Mr. Rollo

Mr. Udy

Mr. Udy